Ill Health is More Expensive Than any Cure

This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Nineteen-tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but undo the past and cure that first neglected cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. Use it and the more serious diseases may be avoided. For sale by all druggists.

Everybody's Magazine January number is the Christmas edition, and the publishers announce that hereafter they will celebrate the Yule tide along about the end of December, instead of in November, as has been the general magazine custom. And the holiday spirit takes precedence throughout the publication, with fun as the dominant note. Bessie R. Hoover's Flicker family, in a "Rejected Uplift," makes one laugh and almost cry, and is delicious with the quality which has made that Michigan author famous. "The Way of Business," is one of Joseph C. Lincoln's merry New England yarns, with a laugh all through. Continuing the fun comes Lloyd Osbourne with "The Great Five Cent Case," a serio comic love story. After that in "The Degeneracy of the Breakfast," Eugene Wood produces one of his wholly inconsequential, rambling dissertations on nothing in particular. One laughs, and thinks, and is carried back to one's youth and first loves. And then one laughs again. "How Malloy Rose to the Occasion," by William B. Ashley is a story of Irish bravery and humor and innocence. And it is a fit close to a number which seems permeated by good cheer and optimism.

Try a package of sure and pure frosting for cakes and candy. No eggs required. 25 cents a package or 2 small papers for 5 cents. At Walsh's.

If you want something different in Olives try a can of those ripe ones. They are delicious. Pint cans 25 cents and quart cans 40 cents. At Walsh's.
